came to hand the Middle of Jan^y. That you mention to have sent hand Dr^a considerable sum in y^e Grandfather Book w^{ch} is more than Mr White as y^e y^e fat^r told me he know no the value being at there being some remarkable pieces (also told me) among them & p^{ro} himself what found him he would bid me the demand. The y^e acc^t. The circumstance of a^c was then when no bottles were larger to that time afterwards it appeared y^e parcel of good money was concerned wth with y^e y^e father & before I had any thing I however I had his promise for the allowance of it. As to the then you, I never had any of him on one acc^t nor another near the time, not having been there from April 1712 till dismission on Mr Carletons affairs but did not. The whole of Included in y^e acc^t as it stands in my Book wth the y^e y^e please to perfect it y^e an issue may be made of it.

but I always judg^d y^e produce of y^e y^e Rum at least £300-
